

Hearst Offers to Give Murphy State Patronage

Editor Dickers With Boss for Nomination After Suffering Disastrous Defeat at the Primaries

For One-Man Convention

Conners Admits That Tammany Chief Will Name the Ticket for Democrats

Charles F. Murphy has been promised all the State patronage, as well as all the city patronage, if he gives William Randolph Hearst the Democratic nomination for Governor next week, it was learned yesterday.

Hearst's promise was conveyed to Murphy by one of the editor's campaign managers. This man, who requested that his name be withheld, informed newspapermen that Murphy received the promise with the following comment:

"Hearst is loyal and if he'll make a promise, he'll keep it."

Friends of ex-Governor Alfred E. Smith scoffed at the report. When the inventory of the upstate delegates as made by William H. Kelley, of Syracuse, was submitted to William J. Conners, the Hearst generalissimo, yesterday, Conners remarked:

"Kelley's some counter!"

Kelley's claim was that of the 355 upstate delegates 222 are pledged to Smith, and in this number he does not include the 63 delegates from Albany, Bessie and Ulster, whose first vote is to go to favorite sons and whose second choice is Smith.

Murphy's Whole Show

Conners frankly admits that Murphy will do the nominating, and he is counting on him to deliver the Democratic party to Hearst.

"There'll be no fight on the convention floor," said Conners. "Everything will be ironed out beforehand. One man knows who will be nominated."

"You mean Murphy?"

"Yes," said Conners.

Conners and other backers of candidates professed not to know who had been selected by Murphy as temporary chairman, on whose shoulders will devolve the task of making the keynote speech. Nor do they know if Murphy has yet decided on a permanent chairman.

There are several men, most of them from upstate, who have been under discussion for these two places for some time. Included are Francis Cullen, of Oswego; ex-Lieutenant Governor Thomas P. Conway, of Plattsburgh; ex-Lieutenant Governor Harry C. Walker, of Binghamton.

In this city the talk has drifted round the two minority leaders of the Legislature, Assemblyman Charles D. Bonohue, and Senator James J. Walker, W. Bourke Cockran and ex-Mayor George B. McClellan.

McClellan, a Possibility

The last named, who is a professor at Princeton, has made his peace, both with Hearst and Murphy, and political wisecracks name him as one of the possible compromise candidates.

Ex-Governor Martin H. Glynn, of Albany, has also been discussed. But he is not a delegate, and the only way he could get on the floor would be for the Albany delegation—which is strictly anti-Hearst, and Glynn is an Hearst supporter.

There are three platforms being drafted for the convention. One is by anti-Hearst, and another is by Hearst supporters, and an alternate from one of the districts absent themselves and elect Glynn as a delegate.

Girl Held for Stealing $400 From Her Father

Rosa Gatti, sixteen years old, of 698 Bergen Street, Brooklyn, was held yesterday in $1,000 bail in Gates Avenue Court on a charge of stealing $400 from her father. When arrested the girl was occupying a box seat in a Brooklyn theater, attired in new clothes which she said, according to the police, she had bought with the money in preparation for a trip to Canada.

Rosa was arraigned before Magistrate Folwell on an affidavit alleging that she had taken $200 in cash, a $100 Liberty bond and jewelry valued at $100.

Republicans of Bay State See Tariff as Boon

Platform Predicts Return of Prosperity, as "Has Invariably Followed" Similar Revisions by the Party

BOSTON, Sept. 23 (By The Associated Press).—The platform presented by the committee on resolutions to the Republican state convention here today, and later adopted without change, claimed important achievement, by the last session of Congress, devoted its longest plank to commendation of the new tariff act and endorsed National and state administrations.

"The notes written in the tariff act of 1922," the platform recited, "are in accordance with the long established Republican doctrine of protection. We predict under it such a return of prosperity as has invariably followed Republican tariff revisions."

Pledges of economy in National and state administrations had been carried out, the resolutions said, adding that still further reductions in expenditures should be brought about.

Coolidge Is Chairman

Vice-President Coolidge served as permanent chairman of the convention and addresses were made by Senator Lodge and Governor Channing H. Cox, both of whom will seek re-election this fall.

The convention rejected an amendment offered by Joseph Walker, who was a candidate against Senator Lodge in the primaries, asking the party to make its platform specifically favor enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment, to the Constitution and the Volstead act. Speaking for the amendment, Mr. Walker said:

"There is not a line on the Eighteenth Amendment or the Volstead act in the platform. Are we afraid of it?"

He declared the platform was "absolutely colorless" on all issues in which the people were vitally interested.

Bonus Expression Tabled

The convention tabled a resolution introduced by Mr. Walker endorsing the President's veto of the bonus bill, and defeated all other proposed change.

Mr. Walker had also offered from the floor planks calling for a statement of the conditions upon which America would be willing to join the League of Nations, with a pledge to apply for membership if the conditions should be met; putting the party on record as urging the unseating of Senator Newberry, of Michigan and favoring abandonment of periodic general revision of the tariff.

ALBANY, Sept. 23.—Ex-Governor Martin H. Glynn, says to-night in "The Times Union," which is owned by William Randolph Hearst, that Mayor Hyman will make the speech nominating Hearst at Syracuse.

Toth Quits Channel Swim Five Miles From France

DOVER, Sept. 23 (By The Associated Press).—Charles Toth, the Boston swimmer, who started out last night in another attempt to swim the English Channel, abandoned the effort today when five miles from the French coast. He had been in the water fifteen hours and fifty minutes, having swum thirty-seven miles, counting his drift with the tide.

Toth was taken from the water in a virtually paralyzed condition, owing to the extreme cold. He took only liquid food, and he suffered somewhat from seasickness on account of the heavy sea during the night.

The Boston swimmer, starting from Dover, finished in the Bay of Boulogne, southeast of Cape Gris-Nez. He had to battle with a strong wind and with a water temperature under fifty-eight degrees. He said he would not attempt the swim again this year.

Walter Patterson, of Bridgeport, Conn., will cross the channel by boat tonight, going to Cape Gris-Nez where he will again await favorable conditions for his attempt to swim to the English coast.

Elect Congress To Undo Tariff, Is Plea of Cox

In First Speech Since Return From Abroad He Charges Lawmakers Are "Most Incompetent in History"

Assails European Policy

Asserts America Betrayed Allies in Peace and Turk Saw Chance to Come Back

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 23 (By The Associated Press).—Asking what the issue will be in 1922 former Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic nominee for President in 1920, declared here today in his first address before the City Club, since his return from Europe, that "the people this year will be asked to elect a Congress that will undo the present tariff monstrosity."

"But we will not lose sight of another great question, the international one," Mr. Cox added. "It will be more pertinent for discussion, however, in the great national forum of 1924."

Calls Congress "Incompetent"

"When a surgeon finds an injured man suffering from a severed artery and a broken leg he sews up the artery first. In the second instance, bad as the international wound is, the domestic injury, inflicted by the most incompetent Congress in all history, is even worse," he said.

Mr. Cox's address was on "Impressions of Europe." He said in part:

"It is scarcely believable that European powers have agreed to the return of the Turk into the affairs of the Continent. There may be a reason which is not apparent from the surface of things. It is barely possible that the whole Mahometan world has been stirred to its base and that the urge upon England is from India."

"There is a very sensitive nerve center stretching from Europe to southern Asia. What we regard as a fanaticism stirs the millions of Mahometans into concerted action almost by magic. This theory of the situation is of course speculative. There is one phase, however, that is perfectly clear. Europe is infirm from war, suffering from an economic breakdown, and divided by the deadlock of reparations she seems to lack the vitality and resiliency to hold back the Turk.

Europe On Verge of Collapse

"All of this is proof of what has been urged upon the Administration at Washington for months. Europe has been slowly drifting toward a state of utter collapse. The first thing that started her upon the way was the base betrayal by America of her Allies. She not only abandoned them in the peace, but she has permitted the vanquished countries to be subjected to a bitterness that must be forgotten if the world is to be rebuilt. The chicks are certainly coming home to roost."

"For more than two months the economic recovery of the world has hinged upon the settlement of reparations. The deadlock has continued so long that England and France have slowly drifted apart. Now, we have the spectacle of France joining hands with the Turk against England. The Turk was smart enough to see that his hour had come. All of Central Europe is on the verge of bankruptcy. There has been no cohesive action with the Allies since the United States abandoned them."

The longer developing events cast a light of truth upon the international situation the plainer it will be that the international policies of this administration have been criminal in their neglect."

Hazed Student Recovers

Lafayette Freshman Leaves the Hospital in Forgiving Mood

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE

EASTON, Pa., Sept. 23.—Robert Cunningham, of Morristown, N. J., the Lafayette College freshman who was injured in a hazing party Thursday night, was discharged from the Easton Hospital this afternoon and left tonight for his home. He was accompanied by his father, the Rev. Henry Cunningham.

Cunningham and his father said they held no ill feeling over the affair. The student council, however, is determined to push the case and is conducting a vigorous investigation to discover the three sophomores who took Cunningham away from the hazing party and then struck him in the stomach. Cunningham will return to class Monday.

HATHAWAY FURNITURE

THERE comes a time when the business of a Furniture Store is governed not by the appearance of its Furniture nor by its own statements, nor even by its prices.

It is the time when its customers have had an opportunity to judge the Furniture in actual use, and by their opinions to make or mar its reputation.

The Hathaway Store has long since passed this time. It is significant, therefore, that the number of Hathaway customers is increasing so rapidly.
